

SENIOR NEWS – NOVEMBER

Don't forget the Elk's Scholarship is due in guidance on November 27th (next Monday) Download, print out, and put it in a portfolio for pick-up. Also make sure you download the counselor evaluation and provide it to Ms. Smith.

A scholarship open to all seniors is the AXA Achievement Scholarship. Go to the following web site to apply online: axaachievement@scholarshipamerica.org

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS IN GUIDANCE:

1. Clyde Russell: A scholarship opportunity unique to Maine. This scholarship is for any senior applying to either a two or four year college. Special consideration given to those going into education or social work, but available to all. Download applications at www.clyderussellscholarshipfun.org between now and January 31st. Applications due by February 1st.
2. Stephen Phillips Memorial Scholarship Fund: Academic achievement, leadership, financial need, and community service are key components for obtaining this scholarship of various monetary distributions. Go to www.phillips-scholarship.org to download an application and learn more.

Another free scholarship search is available at CollegeXpress.com

You should all have done the following at this time:

- Talked to Ms. Smith regarding your plans
- Signed up for SATs again, if you wish or need to try to improve your scores. If you still need to do this, there is a date in January, but you may have to take it in Bangor or Lee. See Mr. Page, SAT Test Supervisor to learn more.
- Have completed or are in the process of completing college applications and the FAFSA.
- Taken advantage of the Free Scholarship Search sites you were provided in prior Senior News bulletins.
- If you still require assistance please see your counselor between now and Christmas vacation.

HAVE A WONDERFUL THANKSGIVING!
